Chapter 2 by intellikat

...one blank page. 7 fingers ready to tap. A million ideas and feelings racing through his mind. His captors, in the room beyond. With each day, a new finger gone. The bloody block, a tabletop. Asked to write, and every day the same result. "Not good enough." And to the table. The cleaver raised, the cleaver dropped. A scream of pain. "Not good enough," as if he didn't know yet.

The fourth day. And he starts with...

Chapter 3 by KirilA

..... a cup of coffee and thoughts about her. The way she was waking him up, the way she was looking at him, her tremble when he was touching her. Yes, she was a great cat.

What a shame he killed her.

"Well, let's try to imagine what she would write if she would be a human being. And she would start with ..."
